* - this is the handicap the player was when he was first chosen to play for Australia.

Year – is the year they were chosen to play for Australia.

Re World Cup Appearances – every individual game played and captained at the world cups has been counted.

For more info see the NSWPA website for the complete list.

Criteria

1. All caps were chosen numerically for their place in Australia's Polo History.
2. Our first Cap was chosen by being the captain of the first recognised team to play for Australia.
3. From then, all caps were placed in order of handicap, and if the same then alphabetically.
4. In order for a team to be eligible it must be a fully-fledged Australian team chosen and ratified by the APC.
5. No Australasian, Commonwealth, Youth, Junior, Snow Polo, Beach Polo, City Polo, Rest of the World or 3-a-side teams; quasi club / Australian teams, or teams with restricted entry qualifications etc, were eligible.
